

Fig. 19. A typical LED spectrum for a single VLPC for an axial CFT fiber. Every channel is fit automatically and the parameters of the fit are extracted and used for monitoring. Typically, more than 97% of the axial channels are fit successfully. The solid histogram is the data; the smooth curve is the fit.